The National AIDS Housing Coalition (NAHC) and the Ontario HIV Treatment Network (OHTN), in collaboration with the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, are pleased to convene the fourth Housing and HIV/AIDS Research Summit. As the premiere venue for informing HIV/AIDS housing policy, the 2010 Summit-Evidence Into Action: Housing is HIV Prevention & Care-will bring together researchers, policy experts, and consumers and providers of HIV/AIDS housing from across North America to present and discuss research findings and policy initiatives focused on the relationship between housing status and HIV prevention and care.

Summit V will be an intense, two-day meeting of research and public policy focused plenary sessions. For more details, see the Summit V Concept Paper and Brochure on the NAHC website or <http://www.nationalaidshousing.org/PDF/RSV%20CP.pdf>

NAHC provides a limited number of scholarships for individuals to attend Summit V who are, or have been, consumers of HIV/AIDS housing and related services. Scholarship recipients are encouraged to be active Summit participants. To prepare recipients for discussions, relevant research materials and background information will be made available prior to the Summit.
